Parish Prayer

God of new beginnings, bless our Ipswich Anglican Community with a fresh vision for the future, with generous hearts to love one another, and with courage for the changes we now embrace. Draw us more deeply into the mystery of Christ, so that we draw closer to you and to each other. Make us a blessing to the city of Ipswich as we walk together into the future you have prepared for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Acknowledgment of Country

The Ipswich Anglican Parish Community respectfully acknowledges the Traditional Owners as custodians of the land and waters we share. We pay our respects to their elders past, present and emerging, as the keepers of the traditions, customs, cultures and stories of proud peoples.

Message from Rev'd Allana Wales

What a gift to have been given. The Apostle Paul writes in his letter to the church in Corinth, "I give thanks to my God always for you." The Corinthian church had its problems, disagreements and ongoing teething period as a new community on the way of Christ. However, Paul was adamant that the people were "called to be saints." I don't believe Paul was referring to the way we think of the process of canonisation and formal sainthood, but in the messy humanness of worrying about how to live in the world. In fact, the thanksgiving at work in this letter is centered on how God is at work in the life of the people. Much like those early communities of Christians, we are still discerning our way towards Christ. How we act and what we do, is always in tension, but is always with God.

Sometimes people outside of Ipswich ask me how my first month has been, and often, in answer, I recount something like this: On the first Sunday of Advent last year, after the ordination of Priests and Deacons, I looked into the congregation of Ipswich Anglicans for the first time. Seeing the combined congregations of the people of St. Thomas, St. Paul's, and the Dinka community was startling. With so many of our number housed under our corporate space, I realised I had been given a huge gift. What a gift, as a new minister, to have been given such an incredible group of people to learn from. I am thankful to the good God who has given me the opportunity to meet the people here. Thank you, each and every saint, each and every person, who has taken the time to teach me about how the Ipswich Anglican Community lives in the world. Thank you for helping me to become another member of this body of Christ. I am only just beginning to appreciate the depth and breadth of the effect that Ipswich Anglicans have on the fabric of our wider society. I also continue to be humbled by the conversations and kindnesses which have been shared with me.

We continue to keep Rev'd Mpole Masemola, and his mother's family, in the same breath as God.

Yours in Christ,

Allana

Thank You

Thankyou Op Shop Volunteers

A very big thankyou to everyone who helped to get the Op Shop looking marvelous for our reopening. Your efforts are really appreciated by us and certainly by those we serve.

Verna Hunt for the Management Committee

Journeying Together

'Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace') Ephesians 4:2-3

Church Unity always seems above us, a matter for the church authorities to negotiate. But actually, as the word of God says here, it begins with the local church. That means that it is the responsibility of us all. We are to be humble, gentle, patient, and loving towards the people we see Sunday by Sunday and at other times. Too many churches are scenes of criticism and quarrels and even division. Even if we need to disagree with one another, it needs to be done with love, forgiveness and every effort to 'keep the unity of the Spirit'. This is God's plan for us.

Questions for thought:

Does my church live in unity? Do I make every effort to foster love and care for one another? Am I habitually critical?

God of mercy and grace, we give thanks that the nation of Rwanda has been able to rebuild from the genocide 12 years ago. We pray for members in the Dioceses of Butare and Gazebo as they endeavour to help those in need spiritually and in their daily lives through programs on health and nutrition, parenting, literacy and vocational training. We also pray for members in Bathurst Diocese and for Lorraine Mitchell the Diocesan President, as they encourage Christian family life in their churches. In Jesus name, Amen.

Three Options for Bible Study

The Bible is an incredible source of wisdom and encouragement for us in our lives as disciples of Jesus. From the beginning of February we are offering a number of opportunities for Bible Study in more depth within the parish.

MONDAY EVENING: THE GOSPEL OF MARK (Commences 2 February)

Meeting on alternate Monday evenings at 6:30pm. Read the NT together in English with insights from the Greek text. Facilitator: Chris Montgomery. For those wishing to study NT Greek, there is an option of another class on Wednesday evenings during the first half of the year.

TUESDAY MORNING: BREAK OPEN THE WORD (Commences 3 February)

Each week after the Tuesday morning Eucharist, you are welcome to join us in the Old Rectory for an in-person Bible study session. Facilitator: Rev'd Mpole Masemola

THURSDAY EVENING: THE TEXTS FOR NEXT SUNDAY (Commences 5 February)

Join us by Zoom each Thursday at 7.00pm as we explore the readings for the coming Sunday. This online study groups especially designed for Liturgical Assistants and others rostered for the following Sunday service, but it is open to anyone from the parish and everyone is most welcome to participate. Facilitator: Rev'd Mpole Masemola
