Message from Rev'd Mpole Masemola

One of the joys of being a parish priest is listening to parishioners share their faith experiences. Over the past four and a half months, I have had the pleasure of hearing many similar stories here in Ipswich. I cannot share these stories in this article without the permission of those who entrusted them to me, but my hope is that a time will come when we can share these narratives with one another, as they have the potential to strengthen each other's faith.

There is a valuable lesson in this: The stories of Christmas and Epiphany seem to follow a common pattern. First, very personal news is delivered to Mary and then to Joseph by an angel. From there, the audience expands to the shepherds, and later to the Magi. All of these individuals are amazed—if not sometimes frightened—by what God is doing among them, except for one: Herod, who is deeply disturbed by the news. However, Herod is not my focus at present.

I write this as this will be the last bulletin of 2025; the next edition will be issued in the third week of 2026 when the office reopens. By that time, we will be in the middle of the Epiphany season. In other words, we will have journeyed from "Silent Night" to the exuberant proclamation of the Reign of God through the person of Jesus. The Good News of God's Reign arrived in a world rife with turmoil and violence, much like our own. Yet, the early signs of this reign were not overwhelmed by such challenges. If anything, it continues to confront the world with the message that God is at work—sometimes in subtle ways, and at other times more visibly. It is through witnessing God's actions in the world that we gradually come to realize that God is with us—Emmanuel.

I find encouragement in the stories of faith shared by parishioners in Ipswich. They represent the birth and rebirth of God's Reign in our personal lives. Each story is akin to an individual's daily Christmas—a reminder that God is with us and alive among us. May we recognize that as we celebrate Christmas and exchange gifts, God has never ceased to give of Himself to us—in both personal and public ways.

Wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year!

Mpole

Please be advised any attendees at a service or anyone entering the church grounds may be recorded on video and, in the case of a church service, may be included in the livestream broadcast online.

He came to save

'She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins' (Matthew 1:21)

In the Old Testament language of Hebrew, 'Jesus' was 'Joshua', a word meaning 'Saviour' and reminiscent, of course, of the great leader called Joshua and described in the book that bears his name. Thus, Jesus is the Lord who is the Saviour. But his task was even more important than that of leading the people into the Promised Land. It was 'to save his people from their sins'. We deserve nothing but condemnation and judgement on our sins. But in his mercy and grace, though Jesus and his death on the cross, the Lord brought about the forgiveness of our sins and eternal safety. We can never cease to be grateful for what he has done for us.

Question for thought: Is Jesus my Lord and my Saviour?

Almighty God, we pray for the Anglican Church worldwide and particularly the Archbishops, Bishops and Clergy that they will uphold your Word and lead with faithfulness, justice and mercy. We particularly pray for those nations where there is conflict and persecution of believers that you will give them courage and steadfastness. Amen.
